

Robbie Fowler

English Football Legend

CSA Celebrity Speakers Ltd

Robbie Fowler is one of the most remembered players in the history of Liverpool FC. He remains the fourth-highest goal scorer in Premier League history and holds the record for the League's fastest ever hat-trick, scored in a sensational four minutes and thirty-three seconds for Liverpool against Arsenal in 1995. He scored 183 goals in total for Liverpool, and is referred to as "God". In 2011 he joined Thailand's Muang Thong United as a player and was later appointed manager, a position he held until 2012 when he retired.

"He was undoubtedly one of the best players of the Premier League and a talisman for Liverpool"

In detail

Throughout the 90s, Robbie was considered the best natural finisher in England. He left Liverpool where he became a legend and went to play for Leeds United and Manchester City before returning to Liverpool in 2006. He also managed some successful seasons at Australian clubs North Queensland Fury and Perth Glory. He trained with Blackpool towards the end of the 2011/12 season. Robbie has now retired from active football and became part of Liverpool's entourage of their 2012/13 pre-season tour in America.
