Comedian & Presenter

CSA Celebrity Speakers Ltd

Russell Howard is one of the UK's most successful comedians. His 2011 sell-out arena tour Right Here, Right Now played to more than 300,000 fans including three sold out dates at the 15,000 seater O2 Arena. He returned to the stage in 2014 with his arena tour, Wonderbox, including four shows at the Royal Albert Hall and a string of international dates. Russell is the writer and star of BBC Three's most successful entertainment show Russell Howard's Good News. The success of the show saw Series 6 move to the new prime-time slot of 9pm. The 9th series began at the end of 2014, after a transfer to BBC Two.

"Russell Howard is a comedian respected by great comedians" - The Independent

In detail

Aged just 19 Russell plotted himself on the comedy map by getting to the final of Channel 4's So You Think You're Funny? competition in only his fifth ever gig. His first nationwide solo tour of if.comedy and Barry Award nominated show Wandering was a complete sell out success. In 2008 he returned as a guest panellist on the new series Would I Lie to You? on BBC1. Russell has released three bestselling live stand-up DVDs: Russell Howard Live, Russell Howard Live: Dingedodies and Right Here, Right Now. He has now sold over 600,000 DVDs and has been in the top 5 DVD comedy chart across all his stand-up titles.

What he offers you

Russell Howard is an exceptional talent who has had phenomenal success. Russell has a stronger connection with the under-30s than almost anyone on television and appears at a wide range of events throughout the UK. He has built a name as one of the country's most exciting and popular comedians.

How he presents

If you're in the mood for some freewheeling stories, anecdotes and a young comic with enough energy to power a small country ...a superbly funny ride then Russell has what you're looking for. It is on stage where he really storms it.

Languages

He presents in English.
