

Susan Annunzio

Authority on eBusiness Leadership and Corporate Transformation

CSA Celebrity Speakers Ltd

Susan Annunzio is the President and CEO of The Center for High Performance (CfHP). She is a key figure in providing corporate strategy advice to organisations going through large-scale transition. A former professor at the Graduate School of Business at the University of Chicago, she also has a background in consulting.

Expert on Shaping High-Performance Business Environment

In detail

Susan is a recognised authority in change management and business leadership. She is a sought-after advisor to senior corporate leaders, having presented around the world at prestigious venues such as the World Economic Forum, and is a regular guest lecturer at INSEAD business school in Fontainebleau. She also led the change management programme at CCH, a global publishing and software firm. One of her major achievements is the complete re-shaping of a global petroleum company reversing its declining performance.

What she offers you

Susan's main message centres on making your organisational culture one that will thrive in the changing economy. By demolishing the implicit rules that stifle employee creativity she inspires organisations to transform for the better.

How she presents

Keen on breaking the rules, Susan, one of the world's leading management consultants and a true thought-leader, creates the spirit of change by inspiring interaction with her audience.
