

Suzi Perry

BBC F1 Presenter and TV Presenter

CSA Celebrity Speakers Ltd

Suzi Perry currently co-presents BBC's Formula One World Championship with David Coulthard and Eddie Jordan and was previously a presenter on MOTO GP and The Gadget Show. She has a great interest in all things technical and brought her genuine, inquisitive nature to the show covering subjects from boy's toys to surveillance equipment and the latest offering from Apple to the newest mobile phones. Suzi has also hosted her own show for Five How to Take Stunning Photographs detailing how to make the most of your camera skills.

"A versatile and multi faceted presenter"

In detail

She is the only female presenter with an encyclopaedic knowledge of Motorcycling. Her skills were first honed at Sky Sports presenting Speedway, the Grand Prix Series and World Superbikes. After this, she made the move to BBC's Grandstand presenting Moto GP from around the world as the go-to reporter in the pit lanes. Under the Grandstand umbrella, Suzi has had the honor to host various prestigious events such as Wimbledon, The Boat Race, The London Marathon, The Great North Run, Royal Ascot and Sailing at the Athens Olympics proving she can attribute her skills wherever necessary. Proven to have vast experience in various genres Suzi is suited to factual, light entertainment and sports presenting. With her passion for presenting and hardworking, ambitious nature, Suzi's career will undoubtedly continue to go from strength to strength.

What she offers you

Enthusiasm and intelligence are just two of the gifts that Suzi brings to events. Suzi is passionate about motorbikes, but her presentations are by no means restricted to sports. She is an ideal host and presenter. As a speaker she speaks with confidence about a variety of subjects ranging from her varied career to her vast knowledge of gadgets past, present and future.

How she presents

Highly experienced, extremely well-liked and with her ability to be informative and credible in an entertaining and affable way, Suzi really does have it all. Being able to expertly turn her hand to anything from hosting to speaking, Suzi is an intelligent, enthusiastic and all-round presenter that would be an asset to any event.
