

Terry Venables

Former Football Player and England Manager

CSA Celebrity Speakers Ltd

Terry Venables is a name synonymous with success in English football. The former coach is the only English player to have represented his country at all possible football levels, an achievement that can never be equalled. Currently he is a commentator for ITV for the most important football events world-wide.

A veritable UK football legend

In detail

Terry's football career started in 1958 when he joined Chelsea Football Club as a junior. In 1962 at the age of 19 he was appointed Chelsea Club captain which made him the youngest ever captain of a First Division Club, a record that still stands.

What he offers you

Terry draws upon his considerable experience as a player, coach and manager to inspire and motivate audiences with parallels from the world of football juxtaposed in a business setting.

How he presents

A charismatic speaker, Terry's presentations are a perfect mix of humour and inspirational ideas. A relaxed and confident presenter Terry is an ideal choice whether delivering a motivational seminar to a large audience or speaking after dinner to a select group.
