

Dr. Thomas Bach

Vice-President of the IOC

CSA Celebrity Speakers Ltd

Dr. Thomas Bach is the Vice-President of the IOC and a member of its Executive Board. He has worked with the IOC in various executive roles since 1996. A former Olympic athlete in fencing, he is the Chairman of the engineering company Michael Weining AG, Germany and President of the Ghorfa Arab-German Chamber of Commerce and Industry e. V amongst other positions.

"A renowned expert in the world of sports and particularly the Olympics"

In detail

Dr. Bach has a Law and Politics degree from the University of Würzburg. He was a member of the Supervisory Board of the FIFA 2006 World Cup Organising Committee, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the FIFA Women's World Cup Germany 2011 Organising Committee and Founding President of the German Olympic Sports Confederation. In 1976 he became Olympic Champion in Fencing in Montreal, World Champion in 1976 and 1977 and was the winner of the 1978 European Cup of Champions as well as winning numerous national championship titles.

What he offers you

A former Olympic and world champion, as well as an experienced businessman, Thomas Bach offers audiences a unique perspective and inspirational insights into the world of sports and particularly the Olympics.

How he presents

Highly engaging and inspirational, Dr. Bach's individually tailored presentations challenge and motivate audiences across the world.

Languages

He presents in English, German and French.

Want to know more?

Give us a call or send us an e-mail to find out exactly what he could bring to your event.

How to book him?

Simply phone, fax or e-mail us.

Topics

The London Olympics 2012
The Economic Impact of the Olympics
Sport and Business
Sports Administration