

Colonel Tim Collins

Former Lieutenant Colonel in the British Army

CSA Celebrity Speakers Ltd

Tim Collins was commissioned into the Army in 1981, joined the 2nd Battalion, Royal Irish Rangers in Berlin. After completing several operational tours of duty including Northern Ireland tours and tours in the Falklands Islands and Cyprus, he became an aide to the Chief of Staff in the UN in Cyprus. He served as a staff officer for a short period in 1992 before attending the Army Command and Staff Course.

"If you are ferocious in battle remember to be magnanimous in victory" Lieutenant Colonel Tim Collins

In detail

In 2003 Tim Collins was awarded the OBE and was Project Director for a Peace Support Training Centre in Sarajevo, before taking up the appointment of Colonel in charge of training in HQ Land Command. He left the army in 2004. Tim recently presented a documentary entitled British Army - Be the Best made by Tiger Aspect for Sky One. He has been the subject of the BBC's Real Story and has contributed as a talking head to a wide range of television programmes.

What he offers you

An inspiring speaker, combining extensive experience of active service with broad and detailed knowledge of military and political history, Tim is in demand as an authority on teamwork, leadership and motivation.

How he presents

With a wealth of rich anecdotes and stories from his military career, Colonel Collins entertains and motivates audiences with his spell binding presentations.

Topics

Teamwork
Leadership
Motivation

Languages

He presents in English.

Want to know more?

Give us a call or send us an e-mail to find out exactly what he could bring to your event.

How to book him?

Simply phone, fax or e-mail us.

Publications

2005

Rules of Engagement

Tim's keynote was excellent. He really hit the mark, people kept referring to it during the two days - Global Management Consultancy

