

Tony Jacklin CBE

International Golfing Legend

CSA Celebrity Speakers Ltd

Arguably the powerhouse behind European Golf, Tony Jacklin CBE was responsible for engineering the greatest sporting revolution of the 20th century. At just 25 years old, the Lincolnshire-born golfer broke new ground at the British Open, shortly followed by a landmark US victory at Hazeltine in 1970. A new sporting icon for the golden age of golf had arrived, cementing his place in the sport's history. Today, Tony continues to inspire young golfers with his professionalism and enthusiasm for the sport.

"An icon of golf in Europe and around the world"

In detail

Tony continued his momentous run of form by playing a crucial part in Great Britain and Ireland's campaign at the 1970 Ryder Cup and the concession of Jack Nicklaus has become the stuff of legends. Later that year, he achieved a record victory at the US Open where he became the first British man to win the title in nearly five decades. His dedication and passion for the sport played a huge part in the establishment of the European Tour and it continues to be the premier circuit for top European golfers, developing talent and forging a strong legacy in the process. From 1983-1989, Jacklin captained the European Ryder Cup team four times. During this period, he became the most successful Ryder Cup captain in history, guiding the European team to their first victory on home soil in 28 years in 1985 and their first ever victory in the US in 1987.
