

Tony Robinson

Actor and Scriptwriter

CSA Celebrity Speakers Ltd

Tony Robinson has emerged as one of Britain's foremost faces of popular history, as creator of a worldwide comedy icon and as an award winning writer of children's books and television. He has hosted Channel 4's hugely successful archaeology series Time Team since 1993. The series has spawned books, specials, live events and televised events and has built a huge following both in the UK and internationally.

"One of the best-known faces on British television."

In detail

Tony has had lead roles in numerous television series including Channel 4's cult sketch show Who Dares Wins and ITV's sit-com My Wonderful Life, but he is best known as Baldrick in the BBC's acclaimed comedy series, Blackadder. As a writer of children's television programmes he has won two Royal Television Society awards, a BAFTA and the International Prix Jeunesse. He has made many TV historical documentaries dealing with such subjects as The Peasants Revolt, The Roman Emperors, Macbeth, Robin Hood and The Real Da Vinci Code. Over the last couple of years he has returned to the stage and is fast becoming a major live act on the theatre circuit. His one-man stage show Tony Robinson's Cunning Night Out toured in 2005 and 2006 with a further tour promised for 2007.

What he offers you

Tony has been active in theatre, television and as a writer for most of his life. A highly popular personality he entertains audiences with tales from his incredibly busy and diverse career. With a wealth of media experience he is well placed to suitably rouse any event.

How he presents

A witty and highly entertaining speaker Tony Robinson is in great demand at events throughout the country.

Topics

After Dinner
Host
Entertainment
Awards

Languages

He presents in English.

Want to know more?

Give us a call or send us an e-mail to find out exactly what he could bring to your event.

How to book him?

Simply phone, fax or e-mail us.

Publications

2005

The Worst Children's Jobs in History

The Worst Jobs in History

2004

In Search of British Heroes

2002

Archaeology Is Rubbish: A Beginners Guide (co-written with Professor Mick Aston)