

Will Whitehorn

Former President of Virgin Galactic

CSA Celebrity Speakers Ltd

Will Whitehorn was once described as Sir Richard Branson's "right hand man". In 2011 he stepped down as President from Virgin to pursue a portfolio career that includes a number of Directorships. Still a trusted advisor to Sir Richard, Will is also a Non-Executive Director of Stagecoach Group Plc and the Scottish Exhibition and Conference Centre.

"Leading expert on Branding and Leadership"

In detail

Will's early career included time as a helicopter crewman in the North Sea for British Airways. He was also a Market Intelligence Officer for the TSB Group flotation and a graduate trainee with Thomas Cook Group. He joined Virgin Group in 1987 as Head of Corporate Public Relations, and as Virgin Group's Brand Development and Corporate Affairs Director where it was his job to steer the entertainment, media and travel giant through times of turbulence and calm. His first-hand experience of running industrial design projects includes the development of Virgin's Pendolino and the Virgin Atlantic Flyer composite aircraft. His appointment as Chairman of the new Transport Systems Catapult will position the UK as the leading provider of innovative and integrated transport solutions to the rest of the world.
