

Zoe Lyons

Stand Up Comedian

CSA Celebrity Speakers Ltd

Zoe Lyons won the Funny Women Awards in 2004. Since then, she has toured the UK stand-up circuit, as well as playing regular gigs in London and Brighton. Zoe has also appeared on the reality television show Survivor in 2001 in its first series. Zoe featured in The Independent's tenth annual "Pink List" for 2009. Zoe's television credits include appearances on Mock the Week, Michael McIntyre's Comedy Roadshow, The Paul O'Grady Show, The Wright Stuff (as a regular guest panelist) and Dave's One Night Stand.

"The most impressive British female comic on the circuit"

In detail

In 2007, her debut solo show, Fight or Flight, was nominated for the best newcomer award at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival. In 2008, her second solo show, Mangled Mantra of the Messed up Modern Mind, featured a joke which was awarded digital television channel Dave's Joke of the Fringe. In 2011 as part of her second international tour, Lyons was invited to perform Clownbusting at the Melbourne Comedy Festival in Australia. Clownbusting is a magnificently written and delivered show which holds from start to finish.

What she offers you

Zoe takes a sideways view of life, picking out the many absurdities and turning them into hilarious routines which she delivers with tremendous energy. Zoe has created a huge buzz on the comedy circuit and has become a highly sought after act on both the national and international circuit.

How she presents

Zoe's shows are full of her trademark high energy, brilliantly observed routines and sharply written material. Her quick fire observational gags delivered with utter conviction and unfailing professionalism are guaranteed.
