IN DETAIL:

Alan began performing stand-up-comedy at the Whitstable Labour Club. In 1991, he was named Time Out's Best Young Comic. He continued touring and performing in the UK and Canada, winning the Edinburgh Festival Critics Award for Comedy in 1994. Alan won the Time Out Award for Best Comic in 1991 and the work offers began to increase slowly, but surely. In 1995, he appeared on the spoof travel show, One for the Road. Three years later he got his own radio show, The Alan Davies Show.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

Alan is undoubtedly one of the most reliably excellent comedians in the UK. He entertains audiences with his topical, intelligent and brilliantly constructed sets.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

Blissfully witty and hilariously funny Alan's set is full of such craft and energy that you genuinely won't want it to end.
