

Alistair McGowan

Impressionist and Actor

"The Master of Mimicry"

As well as being a hugely respected impressionist, Alistair McGowan is also a critically acclaimed actor. He has made a very big impression over the past few years culminating numerous awards including Best Comedy Entertainment Award and a Variety Club Comedy Award for his series Alistair McGowan's Big Impression.

TOPICS:

- Host
- Entertainment
- Awards

LANGUAGES:

Alistair presents in English.

IN DETAIL:

After graduating from Guildhall School of Music and Drama in 1989, Alistair began working as a stand-up comic playing clubs up and down the country including London's Comedy Store. He soon became known for his excellent impersonations and from 1992 to 1996 provided the voices for many of the characters on Spitting Image. Alistair has appeared as a guest on numerous television shows as well as appearing regularly on national radio.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

Alistair is a truly dynamic performer and an excellent speaker whether presenting awards, hosting major corporate events or entertaining audiences with his brilliant impressions.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

Alistair boasts a repertoire of over 100 impersonations and is a truly versatile performer. He is always well received and his presentations are well put together and hilarious.