IN DETAIL:

Anders is the Founder of Tomorrowmensch, a platform and ecosystem dedicated to exploring the future of humanity, leadership and exponential technologies. He is also Founder and Chairman of Njordis Group, focusing on early-stage deep-tech investments. He has delivered more than 1,200 keynotes worldwide for leading corporations, governments and global institutions. His ability to anticipate future scenarios makes him a sought-after speaker at the most relevant conferences around the globe, such as the World Economic Forum, the Global HR Summit, and the Mobile World Congress. With his visionary thinking, he not only serves as an advisor to leading international institutions but also plays a pivotal role in shaping the debate on the economic and cultural challenges of our time.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

Known for his unconventional thoughts and rock star attitude Anders offers a new perspective on the "art of thinking" and tangible ways of how managers and leaders can handle the current speed of change. By bridging the philosophy of the past with the technology and science of tomorrow, he shows how leaders can cope with the 21st century.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

Whether on big stages or in small groups, his unconventional way of thinking and his inspiring and dynamic personality, he moves and activates people, and leads them beyond 'the given' and what they hold to be self-evident.
