

Angela Barnes

Leading Journalist and TV Presenter

"An exceptional financial journalist with extensive understanding of the oil and gas market"

Angela Barnes is a versatile journalist with a decade of on-air experience. Her versatility covering politics, business, and technology has seen her report on some of the most pressing stories of our time on a national and international scale. She has a particular passion for covering the energy sector.

TOPICS:

- Host/Awards
- Presenter, Facilitator and Moderator
- Business
- Finance and Economics
- Technology
- Environment
- News and the Media

LANGUAGES:

She presents in English.

IN DETAIL:

Angela started her career at Sky News, becoming a reporter on its flagship weekly technology show Swipe, before expanding her career to become a regular face on international news channel Euronews, as both a presenter and correspondent. Angelais also a regular on ITV's Good Morning Britain, Channel 5 News, and has also hosted shows on Sky Sports, as well as reporting on East Tech West for CNBC. Angela studied Journalism and also gained a postgraduate diploma in Law.

WHAT SHE OFFERS YOU:

Angela is an experienced event host and moderator, who offers audiences a blend of credibility, global business insight, and engaging moderation, making complex subjects feel both understandable and relevant.

HOW SHE PRESENTS:

Angela's professionalism and effervescent personality will ensure that your live event is highly successful.