Antonio Costa

Former Prime Minister of Portugal

"One of the most experienced EU heads of government"

António Costa served as the Prime Minister of Portugal from 2015 to 2024, earning recognition as a pragmatic negotiator and a key figure in fostering unity among European states amidst rising fragmentation and far-right movements. His leadership is marked by a commitment to consensus-building, finding common ground, and generating trust with global leaders.

TOPICS:

- Social Policy and Economic Growth
- Navigating Political Leadership
- Pragmatic Negotiation and Consensus Building
- Leadership in Times of Crisis
- Economic Revival Post-Financial Crisis
- Building Bridges in a Fragmented Europe
- Building Sustainable Economies: Lessons from Portugal
- Challenges and Opportunities for Europe in the 21st Century

LANGUAGES:

He presents in English and Portuguese.

IN DETAIL:

Mr. Costa's leadership has left a lasting impact on Portugal's economic and social landscape. His policies during the post-2008 crisis period is credited with revitalising the Portuguese economy and improving the quality of life for many citizens. His efforts to strengthen European unity during his tenure as Prime Minister have solidified his reputation as a dedicated and effective leader. He played a pivotal role in the "Conference on the Future of Europe," alongside Ursula von der Leyen and David Sassoli, focusing on shaping the future of European integration. As Secretary-General of the Socialist Party, he led the party through the global financial crisis, restoring it to power and implementing growth-focused policies.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

Mr. Costa's extensive experience and proven track record in governance, economic management, and European affairs make him a highly sought-after speaker on topics ranging from political leadership and economic policy to European integration and social reform.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

Mr. Costa often incorporates anecdotes and personal experiences into his presentations, providing a humanising touch and connecting with his audience on a personal level.