

Azeem Azhar

Internet Entrepreneur & Investor

"An expert on all things technological"

Azeem Azhar is the current Vice President, Venture and Foresight of Schibsted Media Group and writer of the newsletter Exponential View which concentrates primarily on technology, business models, the political economy and society

TOPICS:

- Artificial Intelligence
- Technology
- Business Models
- Political Economy & Society
- The Impact of Exponential Change that we are Facing and how to Adjust to it
- Corporate Innovation vs Start-up Innovation

LANGUAGES:

He presents in English.

IN DETAIL:

As Vice President at the global media company Schibsted Media Group, Azeem runs the very popular newsletter on the societal implications of technology called Exponential View which has garnered more than 11k subscribers including investors, academics, and journalists around the world. Azeem has been an award-winning entrepreneur, backed by VC, with a successful exit; an investor in many tech startups, especially in the AI sector; held corporate strategy roles at Reuters and the BBC. The early part of Azeem's career took him to journalism, where he covered technology at The Guardian and The Economist. Azeem has also had product strategy and innovation roles at the BBC and Thomson Reuters. Azeem has been an award-winning entrepreneur and an investor in many technology startups, especially in the Artificial Intelligence sector.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

Azeem Azhar is a strategist, product entrepreneur and writer with a passion for all things technological. Azeem offers a knowledgeable insight into artificial intelligence bringing humour and in-depth understanding to this key topic.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

Azeem Azhar's presentations are captivating, energetic and provide clear and invaluable perspectives on a variety of current topics.