

Prof. Dr. Beatrice Weder Di Mauro

Authority on Economy Policy

Beatrice Weder di Mauro is a global authority on economic policy. Beatrice is professor of economics at the Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies in Geneva, Distinguished Fellow-in-residence at the Emerging Markets Institute of INSEAD Singapore, and a senior fellow at the Centre for International Governance Innovation.

TOPICS:

- European and International Financial Issues
- Economics in Times of Covid
- The Future of Europe
- Globalisation
- Economic and Social Reforms

LANGUAGES:

She presents in German, Italian, Spanish and English.

PUBLICATIONS:

- 1999 Model, Myth or Miracle? Reassessing Government's Role in the East Asian Experience
- 1995 Political Credibility and Economic Development (with Silvio Borner and Aymo Brunetti)

IN DETAIL:

In June 2004 she was appointed a member of the German Council of Economic Experts which advises the German government on economic policy and economic development. Previously Beatrice worked as an economist at the International Monetary Fund, the World Bank in Washington, and the OECD Development Centre. From 2002-2004 she was a member of the Board of Macroeconomic Advisors of the Swiss Federation, advising the Swiss government on economic policy. Her research interests are in international macroeconomics, in particular financial crisis, global capital flows, financial regulation, sovereign debt, development and growth. She has published widely in leading academic journals and writes regular op-eds and contributions to the public policy debate.

WHAT SHE OFFERS YOU:

Drawing on her considerable expertise Beatrice offers decision makers crucial information and insights into European financial policy, current trends in the world's economy and the ramifications of an expanding Europe on financial markets around the globe.

HOW SHE PRESENTS:

A knowledgeable and respected economist, Prof. Weder di Mauro informs and educates audiences with her immaculately prepared presentations.