

Bill Bailey

Comedy Genius

"Bill is a nationally loved comedian"

Bill Bailey is a sublime cabaret and stand-up comedian, musician and actor, most well-known for live shows Dandelion Mind, Tinselworm, Bewilderness and Part Troll, and his work on television in programmes such as Never Mind the Buzzcocks and Black Books.

TOPICS:

- Host and Awards
- Entertainment
- After Dinner

LANGUAGES:

He presents in English.

IN DETAIL:

Bill has taken on multiple roles including producing and taking the lead in the West End production titled "Pinter's People". In addition to his theatrical endeavors, Bill delivered a remarkable performance on Strictly Come Dancing, which resulted in a victory for that season. He starred in the Channel 4 sitcoms Black Books and Spaced, and in the feature films Nanny McPhee and the Big Bang, Burke and Hare and Hot Fuzz. Bill is best known as a former team captain on Never Mind the Buzzcocks. Other TV credits include Monster Night, Is It Bill Bailey? The Stand Up Show and Space Cadets, as well as numerous spots on Have I Got News For You. He regularly pops up on QI and radio panel shows and presented the nature programme Wild Thing I Love You.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

Bill's uproarious live stand-up performances have catapulted him into the ranks of the nation's most beloved comedians. Skillfully blending a penchant for the absurd with a touch of surrealism, he is a top choice for and after dinner or awards event.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

Bill is brilliantly funny with a razor sharp wit and his performances are immensely entertaining and always well received.