

Mr. Carl Bildt

Former Prime Minister & Foreign Minister of Sweden

"Peace is not just the absence of conflict, but the presence of justice, stability, and respect for human rights"

Carl Bildt is one of Europe's most experienced and widely recognised statesmen, with a long career spanning national leadership, international diplomacy and global policy engagement. He served as Prime Minister of Sweden (1991–1994) and as Sweden's Minister for Foreign Affairs (2006–2014). In the years since leaving frontline politics, Bildt has remained a prominent voice on global affairs.

TOPICS:

- The Future of Europe and its Position in the World
- International Affairs and the Transatlantic Dialogue
- Geopolitical Challenges
- Middle East and Terrorism
- The New Economy: Beyond the Hype
- The Governance of the Internet
- International Security: Policy, Pursue and Patience in Nation

LANGUAGES:

Carl presents in English or Swedish.

PUBLICATIONS:

- 2015 A Free Europe in a Free World
- 2004 The New Challenges to International, National and Human Security Policy
- 1999 Peace Journey

IN DETAIL:

He is Co-Chair of the European Council on Foreign Relations and serves on several high-level advisory boards, including the RAND Corporation and the Wallenberg Foundations. He contributes regularly as a columnist to outlets such as the Washington Post and Project Syndicate, offering insights on geopolitics, transatlantic relations, and international security. Bildt remains active in public debate, regularly commenting on contemporary geopolitical developments, from European security and NATO's future to transatlantic relations and the evolving global order.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

As keynote speaker, Carl Bildt helps audiences understand shifting power dynamics, international security risks, and the future of Europe in a rapidly changing world. With unparalleled experience in crisis management, negotiation and global cooperation, he offers strategic guidance to audiences worldwide.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

An excellent and engaging speaker, highly respected amongst his peers, Carl Bildt is in demand as a keynote speaker around the globe. He's telegenic, charming, experienced and ambitious. Savvy when it comes to the media, he has a cunning, deft touch for geopolitics.