

Prof. Dr. Christian Koeck

CEO of HCC Health Care Company

"Christian is a leading expert on Health Policy and Management that gives healthcare professionals practical ideas for improvement"

Christian Koeck is a visionary in health policy and management. A regular contributor to national and international industry journals addressing a range of healthcare issues, he is firmly committed to improving the quality of healthcare throughout the world.

TOPICS:

- Health Management
- Making Change Happen
- New Ways for the Health Economy
- Clinical and Organisational Leadership
- Accelerating the Improvement of Health Care

LANGUAGES:

He is fluent in English and German.

PUBLICATIONS:

1996 Management in Gesundheitsorganisationen. Strategien - Qualität - Wandel

IN DETAIL:

Christian studied Medicine in Vienna and received his first doctorate in 1983. Harvard awarded a second doctorate in 1984, where he studied Health Policy and Economy and was Adjunct Lecturer at the Harvard School of Public Health, Boston. Between 1990 and 1995 he was a member of the executive board of the network of Viennese Hospitals with responsibility for quality management and organisation. In 1998 he was awarded a Professorship at the Witten-Herdecke University. Most recently, in 2002 he was elected Dean of the Faculty of Medicine. He now heads the HCC Health Care Company in Austria.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

Drawing upon his extensive knowledge, comprehensive studies and rigorous research Christian provides you with sound, practical ideas on how to improve healthcare among health professionals and patients; and how to improve quality through financial investment.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

You will be both entertained and informed by his talks, his drive and motivation is infectious making him highly sought-after at leading healthcare events.