

Dr. Christoph Heusgen

Chairman of the Munich Security Conference

"A leading voice on international security and foreign policy"

Christoph Heusgen, the Chairman of the Munich Security Conference, is a distinguished diplomat with a remarkable career in international relations. Having served as Germany's Permanent Representative to the United Nations and as Foreign and Security Policy Advisor to Chancellor Angela Merkel, Heusgen has been at the forefront of shaping global security policies.

TOPICS:

- The Future of European Security Architecture
- The Role of the United Nations in the 21st Century
- Challenges and Opportunities in Transatlantic Relations
- The Impact of Global Crises on International Diplomacy
- Germany's Role in Global Affairs

LANGUAGES:

He presents in English and German.

IN DETAIL:

In this role, as the Permanent Representative of Germany to the United Nations, Heusgen led Germany's diplomatic mission at the UN, where he was deeply involved in high-stakes negotiations and contributed to pivotal resolutions on global issues such as climate change, human rights, and international security. During his period with Angela Merkel, his strategic insights were instrumental in navigating complex international challenges and fostering robust transatlantic relationships. Earlier in his career, Heusgen held various roles within the German Federal Foreign Office and the European Union. These positions provided him with a deep understanding of European Union mechanisms and policy-making processes.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

Christoph Heusgen's extensive experience, strategic insights, and commitment to international cooperation make him a prominent and influential figure in the realm of global security and diplomacy.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

Christoph Heusgen's presentation style is a blend of diplomatic acumen, engaging delivery, and authoritative content, making his contributions highly valued at any conference or forum.