

Ginger Lew

CEO of Three Oaks Investments and Former Senior Counselor to the White House

"Ms. Lew was the primary architect of the Administration's policies regarding the important role of women/gender integration as an engine for economic growth"

Ginger Lew, CEO of Three Oaks Investments LLC, served as Senior Counselor to the White House National Economic Council until October 2011. She provided economic policy advice on a broad range of matters, including innovation, commercialisation, small business, capital access and formation of entrepreneurship policies.

TOPICS:

- Entrepreneurship
- Business: New Challenges, New Strategies
- Transformation Change - The New Growth Dividend
- Gender Integration as an Engine for Economic Growth
- Innovation
- East - West
- Small Business

LANGUAGES:

She presents in English.

IN DETAIL:

From 1998 to 2009, Ms. Lew was the CEO of TDF, a communications venture fund and a venture advisor to Amplifier Venture Partners. She also was a member and co-chair of the NASDAQ Listing Council. She has served on the boards of publicly traded companies, private companies and not for profit organisations. She chaired the White House Regional Innovation Clusters Group which focused on high growth opportunities created through the integration of innovation, industry specialisation and geographic proximity. She also co-chaired the White House Interagency Group on Innovation and Entrepreneurship. She was also appointed by Secretary Clinton to serve on the Board of Governors of the East West Centre.

WHAT SHE OFFERS YOU:

Ginger Lew shares her insights and perspectives about what it takes to be successful in business. She genuinely believes in helping small businesses and specially in advising the entrepreneurial spirit.

HOW SHE PRESENTS:

Ms. Lew has a charming, commonsense speaking style and a wealth of wisdom and invaluable insights which make her a highly sought after speaker.