

Guy Verhofstadt

Member of the European Parliament

"One of the architects of the current structure of power in the European Union"

Guy Verhofstadt is one of Europe's most influential political leaders, a former Prime Minister of Belgium, and a globally respected keynote speaker on European affairs, geopolitics, democracy, and economic policy. Renowned for his outspoken advocacy of a stronger European Union, this internationally recognised speaker offers unparalleled insight into the political and economic forces shaping Europe's future.

TOPICS:

- o European Politics
- o The Global Economy
- o A Vision of the Future of Europe

LANGUAGES:

He presents in English, Dutch & French.

PUBLICATIONS:

- 2026 Defeating Trumpism: Make Democracy Great Again
- 2026 De Burger in Opstand (The Revolt of the Citizen)
- 2017 Europe's Last Chance
- 2009 The Financial Crisis - How Europe can Save the World
- 2005 The United States of Europe

IN DETAIL:

Guy Verhofstadt served as Prime Minister of Belgium from 1999 to 2008 before becoming one of the European Parliament's most influential liberal voices. As leader of the Alliance of Liberals and Democrats for Europe (ALDE) for a decade, this distinguished speaker played a central role in shaping European policy and later served as the European Parliament's Brexit Coordinator, leading negotiations on the UK's withdrawal from the EU. Throughout his political career, Guy has championed European integration, democratic reform, economic competitiveness, and stronger EU institutions, establishing himself as one of the foremost experts on European politics, international relations, and global affairs.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

Guy Verhofstadt delivers authoritative keynote presentations on European politics, geopolitics, Brexit, global economics, democracy, leadership, and international affairs. This highly respected speaker provides business leaders and policymakers with valuable insights into the challenges and opportunities facing Europe, helping organisations understand the political and economic forces shaping today's global markets.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

Guy is a passionate, articulate, and thought-provoking speaker. Combining political experience with sharp analysis and engaging debate, he delivers compelling presentations that challenge audiences and inspire strategic thinking.