

Jackson Ogunyemi

UK Ambassador for Happiness

"Action's mission is to help the next generation to Laugh, Learn, Lead"

Jackson Ogunyemi, also known as Action Jackson, is a dynamic motivational speaker whose energy is contagious. With a background in personal development, Jackson blends humour, storytelling, and powerful strategies to help individuals and teams break through barriers and take bold action. He inspires every person in the room to take control of their own success and step into their greatness.

TOPICS:

- Personal Development and Growth
- Academic and Professional Excellence
- Resilience and Overcoming Challenge
- Empowering Educators

LANGUAGES:

He presents in English.

IN DETAIL:

Originally from Nigeria, Action moved to the United Kingdom at a young age, where he developed a deep passion for empowering individuals to build self-confidence and maintain a positive, resilient mindset. His expertise expanded as he became a Certified Practitioner of Neuro-Linguistic Programming, enhancing his understanding of human behaviour and communication. As the founder of FixUp Seminars, he is dedicated to helping business leaders cultivate success and resilience. Through tailored programs, he equips organisations with actionable strategies to foster growth, enhance team performance, and develop a culture of positivity. Jackson's work is particularly impactful for businesses looking to boost employee engagement, inspire leadership, and navigate setbacks with confidence.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

Through engaging talks, workshops and his signature enthusiasm, Action encourages audiences to overcome challenges, cultivate resilience, and take bold steps toward achieving their goals.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

Jackson's charismatic and high-energy style makes his sessions engaging, relatable, and effective, leaving audiences with practical tools to transform their outlook and behaviours.