

Jeremy Clarkson

Journalist and Television Presenter

"A dazzling hero of political incorrectness" The Daily Mail

Jeremy Clarkson is an English television presenter, journalist and writer who specialises in motoring. He is best known for the motoring programmes Top Gear and The Grand Tour alongside Richard Hammond and James May. He also writes weekly columns for The Sunday Times and The Sun.

TOPICS:

- Host
- Entertainment
- Awards
- After Dinner

LANGUAGES:

He presents in English.

PUBLICATIONS:

2022	Diddly Squat: 'til the Cows Come Home
2009	Driven to Distraction
2008	Don't Stop me Now
2004	The World According To Clarkson
2004	Clarkson on Cars
2004	I Know You Got Soul

IN DETAIL:

For three years, Jeremy had his own chat show, Clarkson and also hosted the topical panel show, Have I Got News For You and appeared on the BBC series QI. Clarkson has presented a number of shows focused on history and in addition to television; he also had a small role in the UK release of the 2006 Disney Pixar movie Cars as the voice of Harv, Lightning McQueen's agent. He presented Top Gear from 1989 to 1999, in the programme's original format, and then again from 2002 to 2015, when it was relaunched in a new format after a brief period off the air. Since 2016 he presented, together with Richard Hammond and James May, his new show, The Grand Tour, on Amazon Video.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

A professional television presenter, Jeremy Clarkson is an ideal choice as a conference or awards host and is a brilliant after dinner speaker.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

Although Clarkson is known to be opinionated and forthright in his views, he is highly sort after as a speaker around the globe. With razor sharp wit, his presentations are highly amusing and always entertaining if not a little controversial.