Jeroen Dijsselbloem

Former President of the Eurogroup and Dutch Minister of Finance

"A leading economic practitioner"

Jeroen Dijsselbloem is a leading economist and former politician, serving in prominent positions in Dutch and European politics. He is currently Mayor of Eindhoven since September 2022.

TOPICS:

- Business Management
- Sustainable Development
- Global Economy
- International Relations
- Future of the EU
- Financial Markets

LANGUAGES:

He presents in English.

PUBLICATIONS:

2018 The Eurocrisis

IN DETAIL:

He was President of the Eurogroup until January 2018, having been elected to the position in January 2013 and re-elected in July 2015 by the euro area finance ministers. He also served as Chair of the Board of Governors of the European Stability Mechanism from February 2013 until January 2018. Dijsselbloem was appointed Minister of Finance of the Netherlands in November 2012, a position he held until October 2017. From 2000 to 2012, he was a member of the House of Representatives of the Netherlands for the social-democratic PvdA. His book, "The Eurocrisis" is the personal memoire by former Eurogroup chairman Dijsselbloem, in which he describes from the inside how a continent has been balancing on the edge of the abyss for years, and how it was eventually saved.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

Having served at the forefront of European economic policymaking during the height of the euro crisis, Jeroen is perfectly placed to discuss the lessons learned, and Europe's future in the face of rising populism, Brexit and the threat of global trade wars.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

Dijsselbloem is engaging and captivating, challenging conventional wisdom and encouraging audiences to reach insightful conclusions.