

Jock Clear

Senior Performance Engineer, Scuderia Ferrari

"One of the most respected names on the F1 circuit"

Jock Clear is a Senior Performance Engineer at Scuderia Ferrari, where he has played a key role in driver development and performance optimisation, most notably as Driver Coach to Charles Leclerc. Across more than three decades in Formula One, he has worked with multiple World Champions and has been at the heart of some of the sport's most successful teams.

TOPICS:

- The Psychology of Success
- Teamwork and High-Performance Cultures
- Motivation at the Elite Level
- Resilience After Failure and Setbacks
- Communication in High-Performance Teams
- Creating a Winning Culture

LANGUAGES:

He presents in English.

IN DETAIL:

In 1999, Jock became a cornerstone of the newly formed British American Racing (BAR) team. This period culminated in the 2009 World Championship-winning season when the team, now known as Brawn GP, dominated the championship. Following Brawn GP's transition into the Mercedes AMG Formula One Team, Jock remained with the team, working with Michael Schumacher during the 2011 and 2012 seasons. He later played a key role alongside Lewis Hamilton during Mercedes' dominant championship years of 2014 and 2015, contributing to one of the most successful eras in Formula One history. In 2016, he moved to Scuderia Ferrari as Head of Racing, before shifting his focus to the Ferrari Driver Academy, where he has overseen the development of elite young talent, including Charles Leclerc and most recently Oliver Bearman.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

Jock offers unparalleled insight into high-performance environments, elite teamwork and the psychology behind success. He explains how world-class organisations operate, how top talent is developed, and how performance is maintained when expectations are relentless.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

Jock is a confident and compelling speaker whose presentations are brought to life through strong visuals and first-hand anecdotes from inside the Formula One paddock.