

Joel Dommett

Stand-Up Comedian and Actor

"An excellent storytelling comic"

Joel Dommett is a naturally upbeat comedian, actor and television presenter, an exciting talent on the UK stand-up comedy circuit after gaining rave reviews for his Edinburgh shows. He has established himself as a cutting-edge talent..

TOPICS:

- Host & Awards
- After Dinner
- Entertainment

LANGUAGES:

He presents in English.

PUBLICATIONS:

2019 It's Not Me, It's Them

IN DETAIL:

The versatile Joel has been a presenter on several popular TV shows. His extensive portfolio includes steering shows like Joel & Nish vs The World and Celebrity Juice, as well as taking the helm at the 2021 National Television Awards. He's notably recognised for his hosting duties on The Masked Singer and The Masked Dancer, where masked contestants showcase their singing and dancing skills while concealing their identities. Beyond hosting, Joel has lent his wit as a panellist on a range of shows including Thronecast: Gameshow of Thrones, Through the Keyhole, 8 Out of 10 Cats, The British Bake Off: An Extra Slice, and has been a regular contributor to Bring the Noise while also making appearances on Loose Women. Additionally, he's showcased his competitive spirit as a contestant on programs like Celebrity Crystal Maze and Pointless Celebrities, and notably clinched second place on I'm a Celebrity...Get Me Out of Here!.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

Joel Dommett has a playful presence, never taking anything seriously and chuckling freely and impishly at his own material. He is hilariously funny, ridiculously energetic and very exciting, reducing the audience into bouts of uncontrollable laughter.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

Joel's natural charm combined with his quick wit make him an ideal choice for any corporate awards events.