

John Barnes MBE

Iconic Liverpool Footballer

"England's 'Greatest Ever Left-Footed Player'"

John Barnes MBE is a Jamaican-born English former footballer and manager, who currently works as a commentator and pundit for ESPN and SuperSport where he provides coverage of the Champions League. He also previously worked as a pundit on ITV and Channel Five.

TOPICS:

- Teamwork
- Leadership
- Motivation
- Sports

LANGUAGES:

He presents in English.

IN DETAIL:

Renowned as one of the English Premier League's finest wingers, John Barnes carved out a remarkable career with Liverpool FC and the England national team. Securing two First Division titles and two FA Cups. His contributions to football were honoured with induction into the English Football Hall of Fame in 2005, lauding his commitment to the sport and his passion for nurturing emerging talent. As a manager, John led Celtic Football Club, Jamaica's national team and Tranmere Rovers. He was highly regarded for his tactical approach to football, which allowed his players to balance calculated attacks with a strong defence. In celebration of John's impact on the sport, he was described as a "once in a lifetime player", and received the Football Writers' Association Footballer of the Year.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

John inspires audiences with his presentations in which he draws upon his experiences on the football field to demonstrate the importance of teamwork in a business environment.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

His amiable and relaxed manner has made John a firm favourite at events. His presentations are highly enjoyable and he is in great demand as a speaker.