

Keyu Jin

Economic Advisor to the Chinese Government

"Named Young global leader by the World Economic Forum in 2014"

Dr. Keyu Jin is a Professor of Economics at the London School of Economics and Political Science. She is an academic member of the China Finance 40 Group, an eminent advisor to the United Nations Development Programme, and has worked with the World Bank, the IMF, and the China Banking Regulatory Commission, and is a non-executive board member of the luxury conglomerate Richemont and the global bank Credit Suisse.

TOPICS:

- China and the World: A Geopolitical Overview
- The New Chinese Consumer
- The Rise of Techno-Nationalism
- From Imitator to Innovator: What the World Can Learn from Chinese Innovation

LANGUAGES:

She presents in English.

IN DETAIL:

Originally from Beijing, China, she holds a B.A., M.A. and PhD from Harvard University. Her research focuses on international macroeconomics and the Chinese economy. Multiple academic works have been published in the top academic journals in Economics. In recent years, she has focused on technology investments in China, and is a general partner at Sky9 capital, a leading venture fund in China. A columnist for Project Syndicate and Caixin Magazine, the main economics and finance magazine in China, she writes widely about the Chinese economy and global finance and have made multiple op-ed contributions to the Financial Times.

WHAT SHE OFFERS YOU:

Expert on globalisation, international finance and the Chinese economy, Keyu speaks widely on China's growth sustainability, exchange rates, financial liberalisation and government policies with the general aim of targeting the various challenges facing China today.

HOW SHE PRESENTS:

Keyu Jin is renowned for her clear and fluent speaking style and continues to be in great demand by clients the world over.