

Lars Løkke Rasmussen

Former Prime Minister of Denmark

"One of the leading politicians of our day"

Lars Løkke Rasmussen is a Danish politician who served as the 25th Prime Minister of Denmark from 2009 to 2011 and again from 2015 to 2019. He has been the leader of the liberal party (Venstre) from 2009 to 2019 and a member of the Folketing (Danish Parliament) since 1994.

TOPICS:

- The Core of Europe
- Leadership
- Global Mega Trends
- The Opportunities and Challenges for Mature Economies Worldwide
- The Current Geopolitical, Economic and Social Dynamics

LANGUAGES:

He presents in English and Danish.

IN DETAIL:

Lars Løkke Rasmussen's first step as a political leader was as National Chairman for the Liberal Youth of Denmark. Since then, he has held several positions; County Mayor, Minister for the Interior and Health, Minister of Finance, and finally, twice serving as Prime Minister of Denmark. In February 2009, Lars was the chief negotiator in the political agreement behind a major tax reform, implementing the government's ambition of reducing income tax and increasing taxes on pollution. He has also experienced the international scene, in NATO, the EU and a lot of bilateral meetings, and is capable of seeing through the fog and mist of politics.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

Lars Løkke is an expert in political navigation and how to get your ideas carried through parliament. He has been in the engine room and knows how it all works after his many years of experience.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

Highly engaging and fluid, his style is nonetheless very well punctuated allowing time to absorb his powerful messages.