2022 Podcast: The Bright Future of AI

IN DETAIL:

Lars has more than 25 years management experience and has started 6 companies within business analytics and artificial intelligence, all joined together in Amesto NextBridge. His entrepreneurial and business experience makes him a valued investor, advisor and board member for startups within AI and exponential technology. In addition to having his own companies, he also serves on the boards of several AI-based startups. He provides guidance on growth, funding, business development, sales, marketing, leadership, and, of course, technology. His extensive business network of potential customers and investors proves to be highly valuable, and his affiliation with multiple international venture capital firms as an advisor is particularly beneficial.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

Lars has chosen to share his knowledge and passion for technology so that more people can harness it in a positive manner and contribute to creating a better world. He firmly believes that technology can solve major global issues.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

Lars has a unique insight and a twinkle in his eye: no matter how deeply he delves into the world of AI and future technology, he does so with a touch of humour, ensuring that the audience remains engaged from start to finish.
