

Maria Ramos

International News Presenter

"Famed news anchor and pioneering correspondent"

Maria Ramos is a regular live news presenter at TRT World in Istanbul and hosts the flagship news programme 'News Hour with Maria Ramos'. She's an extremely versatile presenter, equally comfortable fronting live news bulletins, current affairs programmes and field reporting.

TOPICS:

- International Affairs
- The Refugee Crisis
- The Environment
- Sustainable Development
- News and the Media
- Host/Awards
- Presenter, Facilitator and Moderator

LANGUAGES:

She presents in English, Spanish, French and Italian.

IN DETAIL:

Maria has spent most of her career working as a reporter and anchor in the Middle East and Europe. During her seven years in the Middle East, Maria worked as a newsreader in Bahrain and also reported from Syria, Jordan, Turkey and the UAE. In London, she hosted Bloomberg TV's breakfast world news and covered the 2008 financial crisis from London and Spain. She is passionate about human rights, having dedicated much of her reporting career to shedding light on the refugee crisis. Maria ran her own international media consultancy and has worked closely with the CEO of Formula E taking the company from startup to a fully-fledged global series in just three years. She has been pivotal in successfully establishing the global brand and media relationships worldwide.

WHAT SHE OFFERS YOU:

Maria is a very experienced and accomplished conference host, winning plaudits for her work moderating panels for the United Nations and hosting UNICEF's Global debates.

HOW SHE PRESENTS:

Presenting for TRT World, she has covered stories from parliamentary elections to technological advancements, a testament to Maria's authoritative influence. She is fluent in Spanish, French, Italian and English making her ideal for international events. Audiences are captivated by Maria, inspired by her thrilling stories from the frontline of broadcasting.