

Michael Phelps

Record Breaking Olympic Swimmer

"The most decorated Olympian of all time"

Michael Phelps is the most decorated swimmer in history. An Olympic legend who has won medals at the Olympic Summer Games in Athens, Beijing, London and Rio, accumulating a total of 25 medals '21 gold, two silver and two bronze' and setting the record for the most medal wins by any Olympic athlete.

TOPICS:

- Motivation
- Inspiring Excellence
- No Limits
- Life and Times of the Most Decorated Olympian of All Time

LANGUAGES:

He presents in English.

PUBLICATIONS:

2016 /b>Beneath the Surface: My Story

2009

IN DETAIL:

Phelps announced his retirement in 2012, however, in April 2014, he announced he was coming out of retirement and would return to professional competition at the age of 28. In June 2016, he clinched his spot on the 2016 U.S. Olympic swim team, making him the first American male swimmer to earn a spot on five Olympic teams. In 2016, Phelps clinched his 19th Olympic gold medal in Rio when he swam an impressive second leg of the men's 400 freestyle relay. Phelps also made history again when he won gold in both the 200-meter butterfly and as the anchor in the 4x200-meter freestyle relay. In addition, Phelps heads the Michael Phelps Foundation which was established to promote healthy lifestyles and the sport of swimming.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

Michael offers audiences an extraordinary inside look of what it really takes to be a champion - the successes and the true importance of winning on a professional and a personal level. His presentations are full of optimism which leaves audiences with a desire to achieve the very best.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

In his passionate and dynamic presentations Michael provides a powerful message for achieving success which motivates audiences around the world.