

Michele Myauo

Director of Cybersecurity & Secure Infrastructure at Microsoft

"Michele Myauo – proving that women can successfully rise in the ranks of the technology world"

Michele Myauo, Ph.D. is a cybersecurity and IT executive, author, speaker and professor. She holds a doctorate in system engineering and is a director of cybersecurity & secure infrastructure services delivery for the global secure infrastructure practice at Microsoft.

TOPICS:

- Risk in Technology
- Cyber Security
- Network Security
- Are You under Attack?
- Security and Identity in the Digital Age

LANGUAGES:

She presents in English.

IN DETAIL:

Michele has over 17 years' experience leading cybersecurity, systems engineering, and IT services business execution across academia, industry, and many levels of government, including: U.S. Departments of Commerce, Defense, Energy, Homeland Security, State, and the Intelligence Community. She was a professor of engineering management and systems engineering, with a focus on cybersecurity policy and compliance, at The George Washington University. She holds a doctorate in systems engineering from The George Washington University, an M.S. in industrial and organisation psychology from University of Baltimore, and a B.S. in psychology from Bethany College in Bethany, W.Va.

WHAT SHE OFFERS YOU:

Michele Myauo's keynotes offer real-world insights on helping NGOs manage cyber risk, recover from cyber-attacks and mitigate future threats. She embraces change from within and helps organisations to cultivate a culture of innovation and shape the digital future.

HOW SHE PRESENTS:

Dr Myauo is an interactive speaker involving the audience to understand how we can be manipulated and how to guard against it.