

Mike Eman

Former Prime Minister of Aruba

"An international strong voice on the climate change threat"

Michiel Godfried "Mike" Eman is an Aruban politician and civic leader, who served as the Prime Minister of Aruba from 2009 to 2017. He has received the most popular votes of any political candidate in Aruba in every election held from 2005 through 2017.

TOPICS:

- Creating Sustainable Happiness
- Sustainable Prosperity
- Green Aruba
- Environmentalism
- Economy
- Politics
- Strategy

LANGUAGES:

He presents in English, Spanish and Dutch.

IN DETAIL:

Since entering office, Mike immediately confronted a formidable challenge to Aruba and its economy – a deep global recession. He implemented a bold rescue plan to revive the economy and to promote the worldwide brand of Aruba as a country that is stable, democratic, and innovative. He pursued an agenda designed to promote sustainable and shared prosperity in Aruba; a balance between the vital dimensions of quality of life and sustained economic growth. He was determined that social gains must keep pace with economic gains in Aruba. As Prime Minister, Mike attracted some of the leading strategic partners in the world to help Aruba transition off fossil fuels, including Sir Richard Branson and the Carbon War Room, and the Rocky Mountain Institute, among others. The United Nations, the U.S. Government and others recognised Aruba as a role model for the region.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

His vision for sustainable and shared prosperity gained substantial recognition for Aruba worldwide. Mike Eman shares with audiences his experiences and the strategies he implemented to rescue the economy of Aruba in order to transform his vision into reality.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

Mike Eman's high content tailored presentations are always well received. He is knowledgeable, passionate and an excellent communicator.