

Moisés Naím

International Economist and Former Editor-in-Chief of Foreign Policy Magazine

"One of the world's leading thinkers"

Moisés Naím is an internationally syndicated columnist and best-selling author. He is the Founder and Chairman of the Board of the Group of Fifty (G50), which brings together top-flight progressive Latin American business leaders, and is a member of the board of directors of several global companies.

TOPICS:

- World Economics
- Globalisation
- World Affairs
- The Global Economy and Information Revolution
- World-wide Business Opportunities

LANGUAGES:

He presents in English.

PUBLICATIONS:

2022 The Revenge of Power
2021 Two Spies in Caracas
2013 The End of Power
2006 Illicit

IN DETAIL:

In 2011, he launched Efecto Naím, an innovative weekly television program highlighting surprising world trends with visually striking videos, graphics and interviews with world leaders which is widely watched in Latin America today. Dr. Naím gained international recognition with the successful re-launch of the prominent journal Foreign Policy and, over his fourteen years (1996-2010) as Editor, turned the magazine into a modern, award-winning publication on global politics and economics. In the early 1990s, Dr. Naím served as Venezuela's Minister of Trade and Industry, as Director of Venezuela's Central Bank, and as Executive Director of the World Bank. His 2013 book, The End of Power, a New York Times bestseller, was selected by the Washington Post and the Financial Times as one of the best books of the year.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

Moisés Naím has a profound understanding of the crucial information corporate leaders require concerning contemporary global challenges. During his discussions on world affairs, he offers incisive analytical focus, practical guidance, and a comprehensive historical outlook.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

A dynamic and engaging speaker with a fresh perspective and keen insights, Dr. Naím always captivates audiences' attention with his insightful deliveries.