

Prof. Ngaire Woods

Expert on Global Economic Governance

"A leading voice on global development and policy making"

Professor Ngaire Woods is the founding Dean of the Blavatnik School of Government and Professor of Global Economic Governance at the University of Oxford. Her research explores globalisation, development, international institutions, and how to improve organisational governance. She established Oxford's Global Economic Governance Programme and co-founded the Oxford-Princeton Global Leaders Fellowship with Robert O. Keohane. She also led the founding of the Blavatnik School of Government.

TOPICS:

- Global Economic Governance
- The Challenges of Globalisation
- Global Development
- The Role of International Institutions
- International Relations
- Public Policy Making
- Rethinking Global Challenges
- Economy & Finance

LANGUAGES:

She presents in English.

PUBLICATIONS:

2009	The Politics of Global Regulation (with Walter Mattli)
2009	Networks of Influence? (with Leonardo Martinez-Diaz)
2007	Making Self-Regulation Effective in Developing Countries (with Dana Brown)
2007	Exporting Good Governance (with Jennifer Welsh)
2006	The Globalizers: the IMF, the World Bank and their Borrowers
2000	The Political Economy of Globalization

IN DETAIL:

Ngaire serves on multiple boards, including L'Institut National du Service Public and the Stephen A. Schwarzman Education Foundation. She advises a range of global institutions, including the Mo Ibrahim Foundation, INSEAD's Hoffman Institute, the Centre for Global Development, and schools of public policy in China, South Africa, and across Africa. She served on the Asian Infrastructure Investment Bank's International Advisory Panel and is an Expert Advisor to the Australian Government's Strengthening Democracy Taskforce, Co-Chair of the World Economic Forum's Global Future Council on Good Governance and a member of South Africa's G20 Africa Advisory Panel.

WHAT SHE OFFERS YOU:

Ngaire Woods provides guidance to decision makers regarding global economic governance, the complexities posed by globalisation, worldwide development, and the significance of international institutions. Her emphasis lies specifically in fostering a fresh perspective towards global challenges.

HOW SHE PRESENTS:

Renowned for delivering presentations that showcase exceptional analytical clarity, Ngaire's speaking engagements are highly regarded and eagerly anticipated at prestigious conferences worldwide.