

Oliver Bierhoff

Former International Footballer

"One of Germany's most charismatic and engaging sports personalities"

Oliver Bierhoff was the Captain of the German National team and played professionally for AC Milan. Retired from active football, Oliver was one of the directors of the Organising Committee of the 2006 Football World Cup, the most successful World Cup ever and later became Manager of the German National Team.

TOPICS:

- Motivation
- Teamwork
- Crisis Management
- Overcoming Obstacles
- Conflict Management
- Goal Achieving

LANGUAGES:

He presents in English and German.

IN DETAIL:

Oliver Bierhoff has had an amazing career in football. As a junior player he was ranked amongst some of the game's biggest talents, he played in the German Bundesliga, in Austria and in Italy. In the mid 90's he shot to fame as one of the most successful players in international football. A highlight of his career was his debut for Germany in the 1996 European Cup, in which he scored 'the golden goal' for his home side thus ensuring their victory in the championship.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

In his presentations he draws parallels between the winning edge required in sports and in the business and management arena. His strong inspirational message highlights the principles required for a successful business namely: leadership, teamwork and motivation.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

Oliver "wows" audiences with high energy presentations; using images and anecdotes from his highly successful playing career he always follows his talks with a lively and entertaining Q&A session with the audience.