

Peter Hickman

British Superbike Champion

"Peter holds the record as the fastest ever newcomer at the Isle of Man"

Peter Hickman, nicknamed 'Hicky' is an English professional motorcycle racer. He is a member of the Smiths Racing BMW team and will compete in the 2019 Bennetts British Superbike Championship aboard the brand-new Smiths BMW S1000RR. Peter remains with the team for a third successive season.

TOPICS:

- o Achieving Goals
- o Inspiration
- o Motivation

LANGUAGES:

He presents in English.

IN DETAIL:

Peter took his first BSB race win at Cadwell Park in 2014, and achieved his first international road race win at the 2015 Ulster Grand Prix, winning the feature race ahead of Conor Cummins. He prepared for his TT race debut by travelling to the Island and driving 70 laps of the near-38 mile course in a hire car, and by watching videos. Peter clinched his first ever victory at the Isle of Man TT in one of the closest races ever seen as he held off Michael Dunlop and Dean Harrison with not one but two RL360° Superstock lap records. Hickman won the last race of the 2015 season in November, the Macau Grand Prix, riding a Briggs Equipment/RAF Reserves BMW S1000RR. In November 2016, he retained his Macau Grand Prix title, after he worked his way through from fourth position, winning by just 0.533 seconds from eight-time winner Michael Rutter.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

Drawing upon his successful career, Peter offers audiences great insights into his drive and determination which took him and his team to the top of superbike racing. He also shows how the lessons he learned can be applied to a wide range of business to inspire people and to achieve goals.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

Charismatic and engaging, Peter shares his unique insights and anecdotes from his exciting career with his audiences at prestigious events around the globe.