

Captain Raghu Raman

Leadership & Change Management Expert

"Raghu's sessions have been consistently voted as 'Outstanding' by hundreds of participants"

Capt. Raghu Raman has one of the most diverse career profiles spanning over 25 years from the army to the business world. This has enabled him to learn, practice and teach the principles of organisational dynamics, strategy, transformations and the mindset shift that is needed to lead in a complex and ever-changing world.

TOPICS:

- Leadership at 26,000 Feet
- From Strategy to Execution
- Leadership During Change
- Compelling Communication
- Five Paths to Persuasion
- Understanding India

LANGUAGES:

He presents in English.

PUBLICATIONS:

2013 Everyman's War

IN DETAIL:

Raghu has operated in distinctively various leadership environments. After a stint of eleven years as an officer in the Indian Armed Forces, Raghu moved on to the corporate sector before joining the Government as CEO of the National Intelligence Grid. He has founded and led companies as well as complex global JVs. Raghu has also raised a new hybrid organisation within the Government – which had personnel from the government and private sector working together, towards a common mission. He has been a strategic advisor to both national and global level leaders.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

Drawing on his personal experiences from the battlefield to corporate boardroom, he motivates audiences. inspires team building, competition and overcoming adversity. He shows people at every level of an organisation how to take incremental steps toward change that can make a dramatic difference.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

Raghu has a charming, common sense speaking style and a wealth of wisdom and stories from his many years in business that give his presentations immense practical value.