IN DETAIL:

Ramón Fauria brings an unusual perspective to leadership and business, combining a background in law and international sales with his long-standing expertise in mentalism, communication and human behaviour. After practising as a lawyer in Barcelona and London, Ramón moved into international sales, travelling extensively and discovering how strongly influence, persuasion and communication shape professional success. Today, the Speaker works with organisations across leadership, transformation, talent, communication, wellbeing and performance. Through Experience RF, Ramón designs interventions for corporate conventions, leadership programmes, conferences, product launches and executive events, connecting entertainment with strategic business messages.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

Ramón Fauria offers more than a traditional keynote. The Speaker creates bespoke, high-impact experiences that use mentalism and human behaviour to bring leadership, communication, influence, transformation and performance to life. His interventions can energise conventions, strengthen strategic messages, inspire teams and create memorable connections between people, purpose and business objectives.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

Dynamic, interactive and highly engaging, Ramón Fauria turns the audience into active participants. His Speaker style blends mentalism, storytelling, humour, psychology and surprising live experiences, creating moments that entertain while encouraging people to question their perceptions, rethink assumptions and connect emotionally with the message.
