

Lord Richard Dannatt GCB, CBE, MC

Former British Army Chief of the General Staff

"Strategic – Operational – Tactical: A truly charismatic leader!"

Lord Dannatt, a decorated soldier and renowned authority on military affairs, provides profound insights into defence policy, military leadership and strategy. With extensive experience in Northern Ireland, Bosnia, Kosovo, and as the former head of the British Army during challenging times in Iraq and Afghanistan, his expertise is highly valuable.

TOPICS:

- Leadership in Turbulent Times
- Communication
- Risk and Security
- Shifting Sands - Power and Influence on the Move
- A Look Back, a Look Forward - Reflections on Forty Years a Soldier
- Boots on the Ground - Britain and her Army Today

LANGUAGES:

He presents in English.

PUBLICATIONS:

2024	Churchill's D-Day
2023	Victory to Defeat
2016	Boots on the Ground
2010	Leading from the Front: An autobiography

IN DETAIL:

Since retiring from the Army, Lord Dannatt became a key advisor to the David Cameron defence team from 2009 until 2010 and was later nominated for a peerage, where he now sits as a crossbencher. Moreover, he held the esteemed position of Constable of the Tower of London until 2016. Lord Dannatt remained to be involved in various public activities and discussions related to the military and defence. A frequent and popular commentator on security issues, his views regularly feature in the media. Additionally, Lord Dannatt has also been associated with charitable organisations, notably Help the Heros and has been a vocal advocate for veterans' welfare and mental health support. He has written several books, including his autobiography "Leading from the Front," which provides insights into his military career and leadership philosophy.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

Drawing from his 40 years of military career, Lord Dannatt delivers insightful presentations on the attributes of effective leadership and the strategies for guiding high-performance teams, providing audiences with a deeper understanding of the skills and development required.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

Lord Dannatt is charismatic and engaging, combining eloquence and humour in his content rich, personalised presentations.