

Rory Bremner

Impressionist

"Widely regarded as Britain's top satirical impressionist"

Rory Bremner is an impressionist, comedian, satirist, translator, columnist, writer, presenter, ballroom dancer, and actor. Best known for the political satire show Bremner, Bird and Fortune, a mainstay of Channel 4's comedy output, Rory has also captained on the comedy panel show The Imitation Game for ITV.

TOPICS:

- Host
- Entertainment
- Awards

LANGUAGES:

He presents in English.

IN DETAIL:

Rory has fronted an episode of BBC's Horizon – ADHD and Me, to uncover the science of the condition, following on from his Radio 4 documentary which explored his own self-diagnosis. Never one to duck a challenge, Rory competed on Strictly Come Dancing and has guested on many of Britain's top comedy shows on radio and TV, including Spitting Image, Whose Line is it Anyway, Have I Got News for You, Mock the Week, The News Quiz and QI. Rory has tackled General Elections and has co-written and presented two satirical Radio 4 series, toured the country recording Rory Bremner's Great British Views for ITV, hosted the quiz-show Face the Clock for Channel 4 and written and presented a documentary on Scottish Independence, Rory Goes to Holyrood.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

Widely regarded as one of the great political impressionists, Rory continues to be in great demand. The master of quick and intelligent quips Rory entertains an audience with his politically controversial impressions.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

The BAFTAs winner's enthusiasm is tangible, Rory is sharp, witty and an ideal choice for any event.