

Russell Howard

Stand-Up Comedian and Presenter

"Russell Howard is a comedian respected by great comedians" - The Independent

Russell Howard is one of Britain's most famous and well-known comedians. Delivering his stories with infectious enthusiasm alongside a sense of wonder and joy, Howard has been a regular comedian on Mock The Week with some of the biggest comedians that Britain has produced.

TOPICS:

- Comedy
- Compère
- Host and Awards
- Stand-up Comedy
- Presenter

LANGUAGES:

He presents in English.

IN DETAIL:

Russell is considered one of the best improvisation merchants in the industry. His 2017 tour, Round the World, was his biggest tour to date with performances spanning 11 countries across 3 continents. With 10 consecutive nights at the Royal Albert Hall, his tour breaks the venue's record previously held by Frank Sinatra and Barry Manilow. The success of this tour led to its release as a Netflix Special entitled Recalibrate. Following his world tour, Russell hosted a new comedy entertainment programme for Sky 1, The Russell Howard Hour. Over the period from 2009 to 2015, he wrote and starred in 96 episodes of Russell Howard's Good News, BBC Three's best-performing entertainment show.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

Russell Howard is an exceptional talent who has had phenomenal success. He has built a name as one of the country's most exciting and popular comedians. If you're in the mood for some anecdotes, freewheeling stories, and a comic with enough energy to power a small country, a superbly funny ride then Russell has what you're looking for.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

Russell is a very confident performer, who builds a good rapport with the audience very quickly whose stand up style is warm and charming.