Sean Fitzpatrick

Former Captain of the New Zealand All Blacks

"His leadership both on and off the field has helped the All Blacks dominate a substantial period of recent rugby history."

With 347 first class games and 92 Test matches, Sean Fitzpatrick has cemented his place amongst the greatest of New Zealand's All Black Legends. He is renowned as a tough and uncompromising hooker and competitor.

TOPICS:

- Team Building
- Leadership
- Motivation
- Goal Achieving
- Be as Successful as Can Be

LANGUAGES:

He presents in English.

PUBLICATIONS:

2012 Winning Matters: Being the Best You Can Be

IN DETAIL:

Sean Fitzpatrick has made a great contribution to New Zealand and the world of rugby. His impressive record includes 51 tests as All Black Captain. Sean made his international debut in 1986 and he continued on to play a world record 63 consecutive test matches. He was appointed Captain in 1992 and went on to have a stunning career in first class rugby. Sean was awarded the New Zealand Order of Merit by the Governor General in 1997 and 2 years later he was appointed as 'Rugby Consultant' to the NZRFU responsible for player development and liaison. Since May 2000 he is Chairman of the Laureus World Sports Academy and a respected rugby analyst for TV and newspapers.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

With his background as a winning team captain, Sean offers audiences his expertise as a leader and motivator. Drawing parallels between the game of rugby and business, he shares the lessons learned on the field and how to apply them to be successful in both.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

An accomplished speaker with extensive media experience Sean is a colourful and emotive presenter who knows exactly how to get the best out of the listener. His well-received presentations are amusing, captivating and stimulating.