

Sharleen Spiteri

Lead Singer of Texas

"One of the most recognisable faces and voices of 90's music"

Sharleen Spiteri is best known as the lead singer of Texas, one of the greatest great success stories of '90s pop, selling over one and a half million copies of their 1996 album White On Blonde. Texas has 15 platinum discs to their name for songs such as I Don't Want a Lover, Say What You Want and Black Eyed Boy.

TOPICS:

- Inspiration
- Creativity
- Life and Times of Sharleen Spiteri

LANGUAGES:

She presents in English.

IN DETAIL:

After 20 years with the band Sharleen decided it was time to go solo. Sharleen wrote and self-produced her debut album Melody, released in 2008, and her second album The Movie Songbook, released in 2010. Her solo albums are vintage in flavour with a contemporary spirit. After a long standing successful music career, Sharleen was selected as a judge for Sky's Must Be The Music. In her own words she's "a firm believer that every time you sit down to write a song you should try to write a hit record".

WHAT SHE OFFERS YOU:

Sharleen Spiteri is a versatile and relaxed performer and in great demand as a presenter and host at prestigious events around the UK and overseas. Sharleen offers audiences an insight into the music business and has plenty of tales to share from her wide and varied career.

HOW SHE PRESENTS:

With her charismatic personality and interesting background, Sharleen Spiteri is in great demand as an after dinner speaker or host across the globe.