IN DETAIL:

One of Britain's best-known television travellers, Simon has built an exceptional career exploring and explaining the world through award-winning BBC documentaries. His travels have taken him across jungles, deserts, mountains and oceans, where he has dodged bullets on frontlines, walked through minefields, tracked lions on foot, dived with sharks and even been detained by the KGB on suspicion of spying. His work has earned numerous honours, including the Royal Geographical Society's prestigious Ness Award and a One World Broadcasting Trust Award for his contribution to greater world understanding. His books have also achieved bestseller status in both the UK and the United States.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

Simon Reeve offers audiences an unforgettable combination of adventure, inspiration and insight. Drawing on extraordinary experiences from more than 130 countries, he shares captivating stories about people, politics, culture, wildlife and the environment, alongside powerful lessons in resilience, overcoming adversity, teamwork and embracing opportunity.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

Warm, engaging, humorous and refreshingly honest, Simon is a natural storyteller who brings his extraordinary adventures vividly to life.
