

Tim Campbell MBE

Entrepreneur & Business Advisor, First Winner of The Apprentice

"Tim inspires to achieve greater things and motivate others"

Tim Campbell is a passionate and recognised advocate of inclusion. With a focus on Education, Empowerment and Entrepreneurship, he has established a ground-breaking charitable foundation, currently sits on the City of London Education board and is Chair of Governors at an outstanding London secondary school.

TOPICS:

- Diversity and Inclusion
- Empowerment
- Education
- Entrepreneurs - Born, Made and Praised
- Coping with Change
- Exploring Talent Management

LANGUAGES:

He presents in English.

PUBLICATIONS:

2012 What's Your Bright Idea?

IN DETAIL:

Tim currently splits his time advising a global talent acquisition business' strategic diversity and inclusion efforts, and his own consultancy, mentoring and investments in the leisure and A.I. sector. As a Liveryman and Freeman of the City of London, Tim has prioritised his work in the education sector by joining the City of London Corporation's Education Board and championing apprenticeships. Highly experienced in start-up businesses, he is also widely known as the founder of the Bright Ideas Trust and is currently a Trading Futures Lead for OSTC Ltd. In his role at OSTC, Tim works in the recruitment of diverse traders who are interested in partnering in capital markets with companies in the continent of Africa.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

With a highly successful career behind him, Tim shares with audiences around the world his experience in what it takes to make start-up businesses a success. He helps audiences with how they can add value to areas such as recruitment, transport and social enterprise.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

His humble roots, passion for inspiring others and his charismatic style make Tim a sought after speaker at a wide range of corporate events.